

Session Agenda - June 15, 2023

3:00 pm Welcome and thoughts from April Session -
Kathy Wiseman

3:10 pm Participants' thoughts relating to questions -
Priscilla Friesen to moderate

1. What are the most compelling ideas and theoretical assumptions presented in this course?
2. What if anything changed in how you are relating to others? Family, friends, or clients?
3. What ideas and questions did you get out of reading the last three chapters of Making Sense of Human Life by Catherine Rakow?
4. How might you integrate the readings and learnings from this course year into your personal life and relationship systems?
5. What does it mean to you to "integrate" something?

Participants will each have 10 minutes to present and answer questions

- Ted Beal
- Judith Ball
- Andrea Schara

3:40 pm Discussion - Priscilla Friesen

3:45 pm Participants' thoughts relating to questions -
Andrea Schara to moderate

1. What are the most compelling ideas and theoretical assumptions presented in this course?
2. What if anything changed in how you are relating to others? Family, friends, or clients?
3. What ideas and questions did you get out of reading the last three chapters of Making Sense of Human Life by Catherine Rakow?
4. How might you integrate the readings and learnings from this course year into your personal life and relationship systems?

5. What does it mean to you to “integrate” something?

Participants will each have 10 minutes to present and answer questions

- Jo Fogel
- Priscilla Friesen
- Jane Gottesman

4:15 pm Discussion - Andrea Schara

4:20 pm Break

4:25 pm Participants’ thoughts relating to questions - Priscilla Friesen to moderate

1. What are the most compelling ideas and theoretical assumptions presented in this course?
2. What if anything changed in how you are relating to others? Family, friends, or clients?
3. What ideas and questions did you get out of reading the last three chapters of Making Sense of Human Life by Catherine Rakow?
4. How might you integrate the readings and learnings from this course year into your personal life and relationship systems?
5. What does it mean to you to “integrate” something?

Participants will each have 10 minutes to present and answer question

- Cindy Devoe
- Peggy Frye
- Kathy Wiseman

4:55 pm Discussion - Priscilla Friesen

5:00 pm Participants’ thoughts relating to questions - Andrea Schara to moderate

1. What are the most compelling ideas and theoretical assumptions presented in this course?

2. What if anything changed in how you are relating to others? Family, friends, or clients?
3. What ideas and questions did you get out of reading the last three chapters of Making Sense of Human Life by Catherine Rakow?
4. How might you integrate the readings and learnings from this course year into your personal life and relationship systems?
5. What does it mean to you to “integrate” something?

Participants will each have 10 minutes to present and answer question

- Sandra Rutenberg
- Thomasina Williams

5:20 pm Discussion - Andrea Schara

5:25 pm Closing Thoughts - Kathy Wiseman